

KING DAVID'S HOLY VISIT

Aish Manchester's Shiffy Silverstone and eight girls from King David's Year 13 returned from an action packed, whirlwind seven-day trip to Israel. Based in Jerusalem, Shiffy and the girls spent their mornings studying in some of the city's famous institutions and hearing from some of the Jewish world's most inspiring and profound educators, with the afternoons and evenings spent touring the country. The girls also met Holocaust survivor Martha Wise, who had just returned from addressing the United Nations, the residents of Aleh home for disabled children, and shared a Shabbat meal with Chaya Levine, whose husband was murdered in the Har Nof massacre.

SFI'S INTERFAITH MEETING

The Southend Friends of Israel (SFI) recently held its inaugural interfaith meeting. SWHC and Board of Deputies member Peter Baum said: "The newly formed group's objectives are to promote goodwill and harmony among all faiths regarding Israel and her people's through a process of education and understanding and interfaith dialogue, working together in peace and harmony." Discussion, debates, lectures, interfaith dialogue, and social events will all be a part of SFI's agenda, and can be contacted at: southendfi@gmail.com

EMAIL YOUR STORY TO:
community@thejngroup.com

and beyond. Rabbi Aaron artists, musicians and per

The first Property Exhibition for London was recently held, with 150 people helping to raise more for Manna Meir Panim.

Five batmitzvah girls - Amalya Mill Forman, Katy Denby, Allie Bohm and Becker - held a Sunday brunch in a which raised more than £1,000.